

Asignatura: Inglés	Fecha: Jueves 20 de Junio	Nivel: Decimo
Competencias	Contenidos	Recursos didácticos
-Uses modals of necessity appropriately in sentences. -Recognizes modals of obligation, permission, and prohibition in sentences. -Uses comparatives to increase the meaning of a sentence. -Uses comparatives to show how two events affect each other. -Identifies the correct linker to contrast ideas and facts in a statement. -Analyzes main ideas and supporting details presented in nonfiction through comprehension questions. - Identifies elements of nonfiction such as character’s personalities, descriptive language, point of view, and theme answering comprehension and critical thinking questions. - Uses vocabulary from the stories to write meaningful sentences. -Identifies and describes details from a given text through comprehension questions and / or critical thinking questions.	GRAMMAR Unit 5 -Obligation, permission, and prohibition (review) -Necessity: didn’t have to/didn’t need to/needn’t have Unit 6. -Comparatives; linkers of contrast. Functions: Using intensifying comparatives. LITERATURE -“Words Do not Pay”. -Author: Chief Joseph Vocabulary: misrepresentations, misunderstandings. -“From Follow the Rabbit-Proof Fence Author: Doris Pilkington. Craft and Structure: Descriptive Writing and Point of View Vocabulary: urgently, nervously, confidently, and cautiously. READING COMPREHENSION - Extra reading *Note: Spelling and punctuation may be evaluated.	-American Think 4. Pages 48 to 55 student book. -American Think 4 Workbook pages 46 to 53. -American Think 4. Pages 56 to 65 student book. -American Think 4 Workbook pages 54 to 63. -My Perspectives grade 8 Literature book. Pages 306 to 313. -My Perspectives grade 8 Literature book. Pages 314 to 322. -Study class discussions and content-related topics. -Review notebook, quizzes, and handouts.